

Karin Schmid

born 1977 in Austria. State diploma in acting 2012. Before pursuing her artistic carrier, she had worked as a psychologist in alcohol counselling. She appeared in various theatre- und film projects and has extensive experience in improvisational theatre. With the "Theaterkollektiv IRIDEN" she writes and produces her own shows like „TABU“ or "G&G". 2016 she was in the show "I Wish You A Boat" with the Ward Theatre Company in North Carolina, USA. Since 2017 she is the artistic director of the theatre company „Treibgut“. 2019 she brings her one-woman-show TABOO to the Brighton and Edinburgh Fringe Festivals.

www.karin-schmid.com